This Book

is the best of us. For the rest, we ate and laughed, slept, loved and hated, read books, learned to think and sing the "Alma Mater" like many generations of graduating classes before us.
Tomorrow five hundred others will efficiently and inevitably take our places. + + +
In planning this volume we have tried to make it stand out as something unique and artistic,
but especially we would have it representative. Our ambition is that you may write your approval across every page of The Echoes.

ADMINISTRATION

The Faculty and Administration have made our school the outstanding secondary institution that it is today. They are responsible for the relationships between faculty member and student which is so characteristic of New Trier.

Their influence is profound, their help is inestimable, their personalities contagious and their loyalty deep rooted.

These virtues have gained for them the respect of every student. They have devoted their lives to the education and building of citizens. May they realize the true significance of this and have the strength and willingness to carry on.

Besides the honor roll there are few recognitions for high scholarship at New Trier. As this is one of the principal aims of the school, the honor society was formed to give recognition to deserving students. It is not intended to be an award to be worked for but rather something extra to be given to students who have done high scholarship work during their attendance at New Trier.

The honor society is composed each year of those students in the upper 10% of the senior class. The rating is based upon the semester grades, an attendance of three semesters being required for admittance.

No one with an average below 3:00 is admitted and everyone with an average above 3:20, the average necessary for honor roll. This provision is included in case of unexpected variations in the scholarship averages of some classes.

Announcement of those students being admitted to honor society is made at the award assembly held in the spring of the year.

The Freshman Class army assembles on New Trier Field September, 1933, in battle formation. Commanders-in-chief Herron and Shaw give orders to the four generals, Byrum, Stein, Nielsen, and Morehouse. They plan a surprise attack with the Freshman class party. The enemy retreats and the battle is ours. Time marches on. . . .

New Trier Rose Bowl. Coaches Grinnell and Hurst give pep talks. With Spinney as captain, Driver as substitute, Wenter to remember the signals, and McJunkin to get the quarters back, the team starts off with the bang of the opening gun. During the third quarter the team makes its most brilliant play, the sophomore party, which cinches the game for us and gives us the title. Time marches on. . . .

Aboard the S. S. New Trier September, 1936. The good ship Junior class starts its round-the-year voyage with Captain Wheeland, First Mate Stebbins, Log-keeper Finley and Purser Neilson. Smooth sailing all the way with the excellent steering of Admirals Vernon and Brady. The very super supercargo for this trip was the Junior Prom. Time marches on. . . .

The great nation of seniors starts off with a new administration. Knoop is elected President; McKisson, Speaker of the House; Bayard, Secretary of State; and Lamb, Secretary of the Treasury. Congress begins session in November, passing a bill for caps and gowns for graduation. A huge lake is discovered in the Northeast Territory by explorers Spinney and Neilson and Guide Jackson. Chief Justices Kahler and Maloney hand down unanimous decisions for the constitutionality of a Senior Hop—no age limit! Time marches on . . . and on . . . and on.

Class PROPHECY

Over station CYQ
Wally Knoop's informing you
Of Letts' and Wenter's Community Sing,
Where Dayton is the crooning king.

Of Bonnet with his talks of travel,
Amazing tales he does unravel.
Unk McJunk, the famed globe trotter,
Doing things he hadn't ougther.

Of Jayne, the editor of the "Times,"
Announcing Shapiro's political climbs,
While Badger as our "Dorothy Dix,"
Comforts everyone in a fix.

Listen housewives Bayard and "Ching"
To Mary McKisson advising,
On proper etiquette and good form,
And you'll survive the social storm.

Hear Neeves reporting Hollywood chatter
About Kaufman and Taylor—stars who matter.
And from this list we cannot hide
Salisbury and Mathison as Jekyll and Hyde.

Hear Byrum's performance from the "Met,"
Equalling Krause's on the set
At Mitchell's Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer,
Where Julie is the famous player.

Of Stebbins (than whom there's no hardware man finer)
Crossing on Benjie MacKinnon's ocean liner,
With Johnny Weese, the architect,
And Arthur Nielsen, president-elect.

Kresge's now become a preacher,
Flo White, a good gym teacher.
Spanuth's acting on the stage,

Rothermel is now a golf pro,
Driscoll's a major league umpire now.
Scarff designs women's coiffures,
And Powell has been in the "jug" for years.

Riley has become a mathematician,
Prescott spends her time in the kitchen.
Rockwell's president of the D. A. R.,
And truck driver Skillen is still a star.

Bartlett spends her life in a trailer,
Sheriff's finally married a sailor.
Sharp has become a circus clown,
And Ballenger a doctor of wide renown.

Musson's designing gowns for women,
Jones has gone on with his swimmin'.
The Murray boys now own a store,
Of Crutt and Brown we need say no more.

Mr. Stillman of "Woman's Home Campanion"
Writes of Clough, our dancing champion,
Also of Spinney and Stein, whose stations
Are to manage our diplomatic relations.

"Around the wheel of fortune goes
And where it stops nobody knows."
But not one of "37" we'll wager—
Even Jim Neilsen—will be "The Major."

VARSITY Football

It's an old axiom in the sport world that in the long run "the breaks even themselves up." To the four lettermen left from the 1935 state football champs and to their 1936 teammates the truth of this axiom was well demonstrated. Little of the good fortune which habitually followed the Green Wave of the year previous remained to carry last fall's team through their tight spots. There were more tight spots for the team was inexperienced, none of the regulars having played first string before. The coordination which comes from playing together over a long period of time was lacking.

Two victories and six defeats dot the record of the '36 gridders—not a bad one taking into consideration the points mentioned above. Emerson High of Gary opened the season here by handing the Green a 12 to 0 trimming. A week later Proviso's championship contenders came here to beat the Green in the rain. The final score, 27 to 6, does not indicate either the improvement in New Trier's play, or the equality of the first half, at the end of which Proviso led, 8 to 6.

Against Morton the next week New Trier capitalized on every scoring chance, to pile up a 25 to 6 victory. Encouraged by this breather, the team entrained for Canton, Ohio, for an intersectional battle, in a fairly optimistic frame of mind. However, the trip resulted in a 53 to 0 trimming for the Green.

Returning with a large injury list, and with every reason to be discouraged, the squad surprised its supporters by playing really good football for the rest of the season. Although only one out of the remaining four games resulted in a victory, all four games were hard fought, with New Trier a threat until late in each game.

Oak Park, championship bound, beat the team 19 to 0 a week after the Canton trip. Then followed a 13 to 7 victory over Highland Park and a heartbreaking 15 to 7 defeat in the mud at Waukegan. In the final game of the season, Evanston withstood a brilliant second half rally to win, 20 to 6.

Key men in the '36 squad were the four returning lettermen. Captain Bill Stebbins, fullback, turned in a real job with his outstanding blocking and defensive work. Jim Versino, left half, had another tough break this season, missing half the season because of injuries. His play in the Evanston game, in which he returned to action to lead the second half comeback, was a sample of what he meant to the team while he was in.

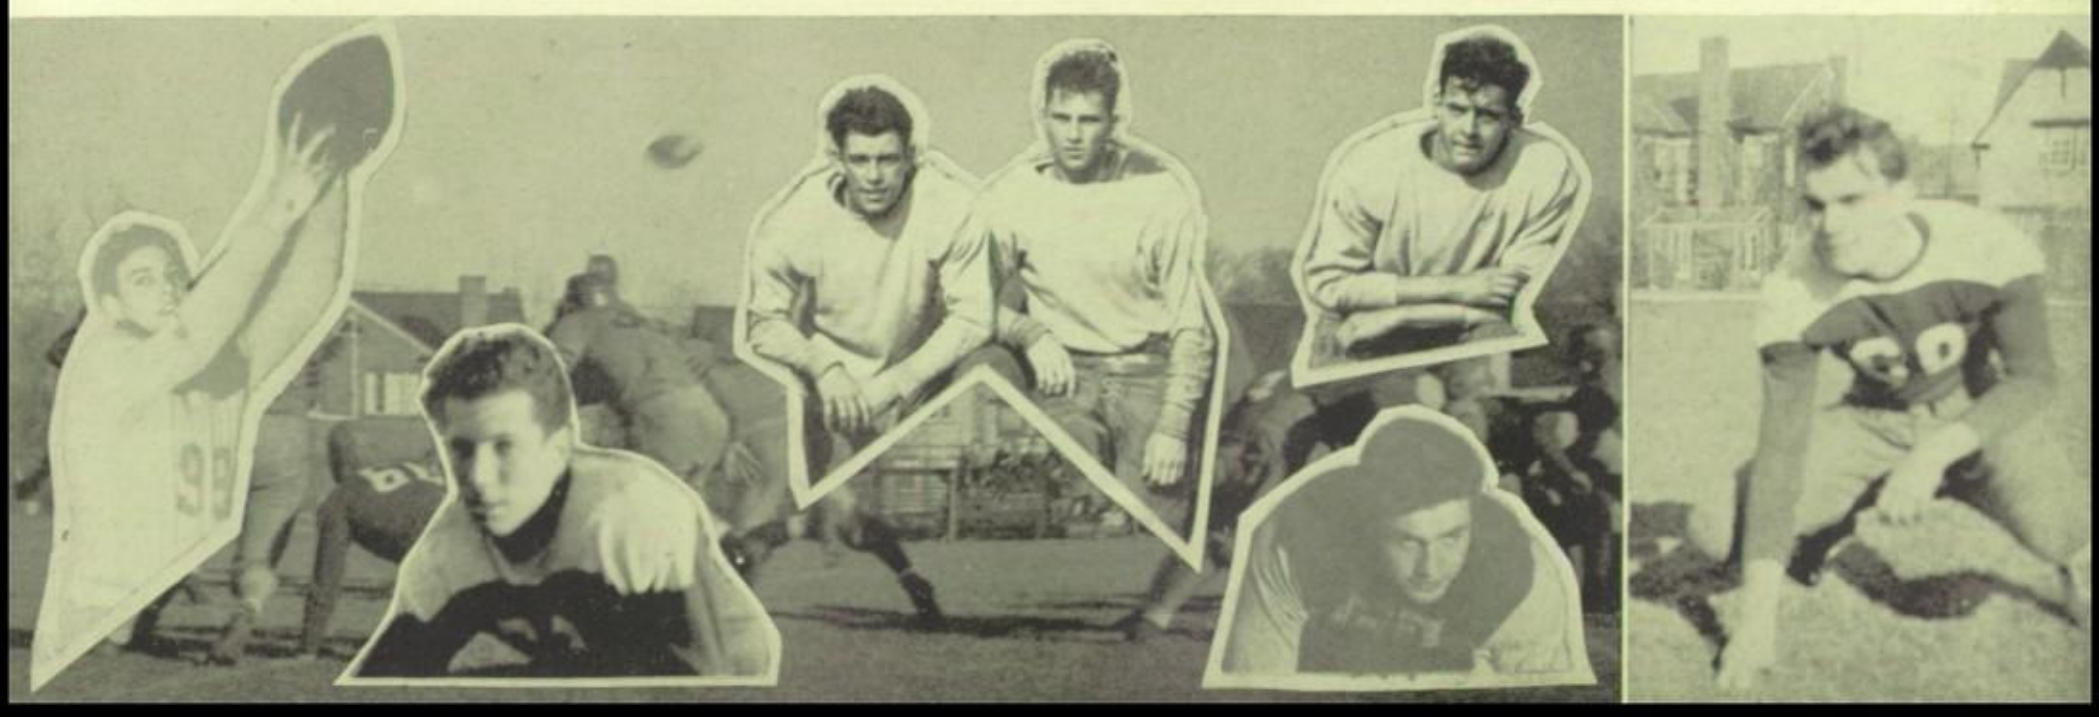
Two linemen were veterans. Jim Lamb, at guard, and tackle Clarence Lineberger were extremely valuable although both were handicapped by injuries. Lamb won All-Suburban mention.

The ends, Skillin, MacKinnon, Scheibel and Edwards, were all new but improved rapidly as the season progressed. Ensley Hooker and Ted Anderson were the other tackles. Hooker was New Trier's only representative on the All-Surburban. In the middle of the line, the guard positions were held down by Jack Coyne, Bud Channer, Dave Koolish, Phil Mallen and Web Powell. Sophomore Dick Reynolds was a fixture at center with John Weese and Bill Driscoll as his replacements.

The signal-calling assignment fell to Captain-elect Dick Wagner and Chuck Ballenger. An outstanding quintet of halfbacks alternated in the backfield—Earl Gray, who starred as regular left half with Versino out, Mickey McFadzean, Hugh Clayton, Chuck Rothermel and Bill Krumsick. Rog Oyen was Stebbins' alternate at fullback.



FROSH-SOPH Football

Steady ball from September through November enabled the frosh-soph football team to break even for the season. The team won from Morton, Highland Park and Waukegan, and lost to all the members of the "Big Three," Proviso, Oak Park, and Evanston.

Chief factor in what success Coach Funkhouser's charges had this year was an exceptionally fine backfield. Tom Carney, who did the kicking, John Powell, a good passer, and Rigo Marchini, a good pass receiver, were all fine running halfbacks also. Fullback Dick Sauer was a strong plunger and an excellent blocker. The signal calling was handled by Bud Younglove.

In the line Melvin Kahn and Ted Harris were outstanding. Kahn, a tackle, was a deadly blocker, a powerful cog in the yearling offense. Harris, at guard, led the defense.

Brown, DeVinny, Scheibel, Bruschini, Terzakes and Hinrichs completed a competent line. Brown and DeVinny, the ends, were effective at smashing interference. DeVinny was an offensive threat on passes. Hinrich's defensive play at center more than balanced any errors in his passing.

VARSITY Basketball

A decidedly disappointing record compiled by the team helped conceal the fact that New Trier's varsity basketball squad last winter was both courageous and colorful. Although Coach Grater's team won only six out of seventeen games and placed sixth in the league, the quintet was a dangerous one and potentially a winning combination.

Until his graduation in February, Captain Hal Finch held down one forward position. Finch was a close approach to perfection in high school basketball, an inspiring leader and the real sparkplug of the Green attack. Don Stillman, Jack Fitzgerald and Art Cruttenden were the other forwards on the squad who saw regular service. All three were fine shots but were handicapped by lack of height. Fitzgerald also played center while Cruttenden was used at guard. Co-Captain-elect John Deacon, the tallest man on the team, was the regular center. "Deke," who was out part of the season with chicken pox, was third high scorer on the team, finishing behind Finch and Fitzgerald.

NIELSEN

"Swede" Samuelson and Bennett started the season at guard but were replaced in the Oak Park game by Dave Skillin and Chuck Soulé who drew the starting assignments for the rest of the season. Much of the improvement the team showed in the later stages of the season can be traced to the play of the Soulé-Skillin combination. Together they formed an aggressive but careful pair, carrying out their assignments before trying any individual work. Although they scored 50 points between them, their chief value was as defensive players. Co-Captain-elect Thompson, Carey, Thorsen, Wagner and Clark saw service as reserves.

Blue Island opened the season here in December, losing 35 to 10. Then followed a five game losing streak for the Green, as the Alumni and Dundee scored one point victories and Waukegan, Proviso and Oak Park handed out defeats in successive weeks.

But the Oak Park victory margin was only two points thanks to the work of Guards Skillin and Soulé. The team improved fast after vacation, winning from Hinsdale, Evanston, Highland Park and the Champion Crane team of Chicago, while losing a single game to Morton by three points.

The Crane game was the high water mark of the season. The last six games, all league contests, resulted in only one victory. Four of these games were played without the services of Finch who closed his career against Oak Park in February, receiving an unusual tribute from the crowd as he walked off the floor for the last time.

Next year's outfit should have the same color which made the 36-37 squad so interesting, with a promising squad of junior lettermen — Deacon, Thompson, Clark, Lingle, Carey, Wagner and Siefert returning.

FROSH-SOPH Basketball

In 1935-'36 a strong frosh-soph cage squad won nine league games, lost three, and tied for the Suburban championship. Last year's team, perhaps a shade stronger, duplicated that record only to miss the championship by a two-game margin.

The team was led by Dick Reynolds who played center during most of the season. Reynolds was second high scorer on the team. At one forward post was Rigo Marchini who went on a sensational point spree early in the season and kept up the pace to the end, scoring 161 points in twelve games. Stan Jorgensen, a fine play maker and defensive player held down the other forward post.

At backguard Dick Sauer was a fixture. He and Reynolds were chiefly responsible for New Trier's ability to control the ball at most times. After Reynolds had secured the tip off, Sauer's work under the backboards retained the ball for the Green. Price, the only freshman on the squad, played the floor guard position most of the season.

Coach Ream's team, drilled exclusively on the Man-to-Man defense coupled with a fast breaking offense, presented a game packed full of thrills, spills, and brilliant shots which increased the popularity of Frosh-Soph Basketball to a point unequalled in New Trier underclass competition.

Able replacements were available in the persons of Earl Borre, at center and forward, and Oscar Jorgensen who played guard and forward.

After losing to Blue Island and defeating Dundee, Coach Ream's charges opened the league season with victories over Waukegan and Proviso. The next week a one point defeat by Oak Park, the eventual champions, put the yearlings in second place.

The team came back well. Although they dropped their next game, a non-league tilt with Hinsdale, a seven game winning streak which included victories over Morton, Highland Park, Proviso, Crane of the City league, Oak Park, and two over Evanston carried the Green into a first place tie. But when Morton and Highland Park turned the tables on New Trier in the next two weeks, a victory over Waukegan between the two defeats was not enough to pull the team back into the running.

VARSITY Track

One of New Trier's habits, or perhaps a habit of Coaches John Nay and Paul Delaporte, is turning out good track teams. This year's squad is one of the best in the state despite its showing in the state meet. At the date of this writing, just before the outdoor Suburban meet, the squad has failed to bring back the victor's laurels in only one, perhaps two, meets—the state championship carnival, and a disputed practice meet at Oak Park which had no official winner.

On the opposite side of the ledger are two smashing victories over Evanston in indoor dual meets, a victory over Oak Park and the 'Kits in a triangular in Oak Park's fieldhouse, an 87 to 8 defeat of Schurz, of Chicago, a 73½ to 21½ victory over Hammond and a 74 to 30 relay victory over Highland Park. But those are only small triumphs compared to the historic licking meted out to Oak Park in the indoor Suburban meet, or the much coveted team championship won at the Oak Park relays, or, on the outdoor track at Evanston, the winning of the district championship.

The track team is, as this goes to press, looking forward to beating the state championship Oak Park team in the outdoor Suburban to be held in a few days. Win or lose in that meet, however, and it will still have been a great season.

Evanston opened the indoor season here on January 27, losing 54 to 29. The 'Kits were able to take only four first places. For New Trier, Russ Monroe ran a 5.5 second 50 yard dash to win with Mickey McFadzean finishing third. Barnard won the high hurdle event and placed second in the lows. Wally Knoop and Gordy Boling gave New Trier place and show points in the highs and Sophomore Bob DeVinny took a third in the low sticks.

Twenty points were contributed by the relay victors. The one lap team used Sprinters Snorf, Logan, McFadzean and Hinman. Clayton, Anthony, Bushnell and Hotze made up a two lap team while Captain Bill Murray, Bill Jennings, Tom Harrington and Sam Carson ran three laps each and the distance men, George Murray, Jack Jennings, Tom Gatles and Park Brown, covered sixteen laps between them.

In the field events, High Jumpers Jack Fyfe, Dick Wade and Moreau figured in a second place tie. Sublett won the shop put and Fyfe, Moulding and Roberts won points in the pole vault. McFadzean got a second in the broad jump.

A week later the Green took a triangular against Oak Park and Evanston, winning 49½ to 38 to 32½. In this meet, the distance stars began to win individual points. Jack Jennings and Bill Murray ran one-two in the half mile and this performance was duplicated by Park Brown and George Murray in the mile run. Lowell Snorf and McFadzean furnished more "one-two points" in the broad jump. Monroe got points in the dash, Barnard and DeVinny in the hurdles, Anthony and Harrington in the quarter mile, and the relay team (Clayton, Hinman, Snorf and McFadzean) got a second. The field events brought in points from Fyfe, Moulding, Wade and Sublett.

The second Evanston meet went to the Green by an even larger margin than the first. Tom Carney figured prominently in the scoring in this meet for the first time, winning the low hurdles and placing second in the high jump. Borre took a second in the pole vault which Fyfe won. Another change saw Macqueene on the relay team instead of Clayton.

Only five third places and one second were won by Schurz when the City leaguers traveled here on February 20. Monroe, Barnard, Anthony, Bill Murray, Park Brown, Sublett, Snorf and the relay team all came through with first places while Carney was a double victor and Moulding and Roberts tied for a first in the pole vault. New faces among the individual point winners were Bushnell in the 440, Bill Jennings in the 880 and Edwards in the shot put.

BARNARD

Horder and Hinman ran with Snorf and McFadzean as a new relay quartet.

A week later, Hammond was able to do only slightly better, winning one first place and splitting another in a three-way tie. Carson and Raclin made their debuts as individual point winners in the 440 and the shot put. Again the bulk of New Trier's points came from the old standbys in the 440, 880 and mile runs, and in the broad jump.

The team entered the Suburban indoor at Oak Park rated as "having a chance" to win. But the fellows had definite intentions of bringing home the championship and they not only did so, but they rubbed in a good trimming for the rest of the league, scoring 51 points.

Bobbie Barnard contributed his part by upsetting Keys of Oak Park to win the low hurdles, and grabbing a second in the highs. Park Brown and George Murray came from far behind to stage another one-two finish in the mile run. McFadzean and Snorf chalked up the same record in the broad jump, while the relay team, with Warren Meyers as a new man, won a first. Other points were won by Monroe and McFadzean in the dash, Devinny in the hurdles, Bushnell and Anthony in the 440, Bill Murray in the 880, Fyfe and Moulding in the pole vault, Fyfe and Carney in the high jump and Sublett in the shot put. But the victory was not without its disappointment for Jack Jennings, who ran a beautiful winning half mile only to lose the title through disqualification.

Competition was tougher in the Oak Park relays on April 3 with only a point separating New Trier from the second place Oaks. Barnard and Snorf won first places in their specialties to lead the scoring in individual events. The eight lap relay team won a first place tie and the medley relay team got a second to bring in the 17 points which really won for New Trier.

The first important outdoor meet saw the Green gain 61 points in the district event at Evanston, thus qualifying fourteen men and a relay team for the state meet at Champaign. But downstate the team fared not so well due to a number of reasons and did not place in the first ten.

The outdoor Suburban will be the last meet of the season for the team.

After a slow start in the indoor dual meet season, the frosh-soph trackmen showed steady improvement. In the indoor league meet the team finished second, seven points behind Evanston. The team hopes to be able to cut that margin down in the outdoor meet if the improvement continues at the same rate.

Adair and Dailey are the team's representatives in the dash event. Adair was a point winner in the league meet.

In the hurdle events Kim Brown looks like a coming star. Brown won the league title in the lows and placed second in the highs. He competed in the varsity meets on occasion. Brown's running mate, Jurgenson, placed second and fourth in the championship hurdle events.

Of the quartet of distance men, Cushman, Dathan, Raymer and McNitt, Cushman seemed to be the best, winning a third in the league meet.

Dick Wade and Cal Hill high jumped for the team. Wade won the league title with a record leap. The broad jump was handled by Casterline and Batter.

Simons was a consistent point winner in the pole vault while Dick Sauer won the league championship in the shot put.

Casterline, Laughead and Sauer helped Dailey and Adair out on the sprint relay team.

VARSITY Swimming

The varsity swimmers made their first season in the new pool a memorable one. Only one defeat in ten dual meets marred their record, and an overwhelming victory in the Suburban interscholastic and a third place in the state meet, both held in Lake New Trier, added considerably to the achievements of the tankmen.

Two individual state champions were numbered among the outstanding members of this year's squad. One of these was powerful Fred Henschel, a junior, who captured both the Suburban and the state 100-yard breast stroke crowns. Henschel is one of the most promising swimmers ever developed on Coach Jackson's teams and is one of "Jack's" best bets for next year. The second man in the breast stroke event for the Green was Ted Buenger who climaxed a consistent record by taking second place honors in the Suburban meet and qualifying for the state finals with the sixth fastest time.

Mark Follansbee was New Trier's other state champ. Mark, one of the youngest members of the squad, although a senior, won both the league and state titles in the 100-yard back stroke. In this same event, Pat Conway took a second in the league and a third in the state while Phil Mallen took fourth in the league.

Co-Captain Bill Spinney, Ed Sullivan, Les Waldo, Ed Hess, Lance Hinrichs, Jack Randall, Wilder and Evans Jasper were the dash free style men on the team. Individually, Wilder and Hess took third and fourth in the league meet in the 50-yard event. Jasper won the 100-yard championship. Hinrichs, Spinney, Sullivan and Hess formed a 200-yard relay outfit which set a new league record in winning the Suburban title. With Waldo swimming in Hinrich's place, the team placed fourth in the league meet.

Harry Shabino and Dick KixMiller were New Trier's representatives in the 200-yard free event. Both just missed qualifying for the state finals.

Stan Jones and Co-Captain Jimmy Neilson did the fancy diving for the team. Both were consistent, Jones placing in a tie for second in the league meet and qualifying seventh, just out of the final round, in the state preliminaries, while Co-Captain Neilson was fourth in the league and eighth in the state.

Mark Follansbee, Fred Henschel and Lance Hinrichs composed the medley relay team which won the league title in record-breaking time. This team qualified in the state championships with the fastest time but was disqualified in the final race.

All in all this has been one of the best seasons the swimmers have had—so successful in fact that swimming has been elevated to the rank of a major sport, a position it held long ago if consistent merit is the standard used to judge the sports.

Although losing two practice meets, one to Maine, and one to Lane Tech, the frosh-soph swimming team was tops in the Suburban League. The youngsters beat Morton, Highland Park, Proviso, Evanston, Oak Park and Waukegan all in convincing fashion in dual meets, and then beat them again in the interscholastic meet held at New Trier.

Don Garretson, Bob Bennett, Bob Wiese and Tom Ellis made up the championship 200-yard relay team which set a new league record.

Harold Molter also set a record in winning the league breast stroke title. Harold Gershenow was another point contributor in this event. In the fifty-yard back stroke, Bill Drucker, league champion, John Wiese and Bill Wiese were all point winners.

John Clark was the best free style man, setting league records in both the 50- and 75-yard events to win titles. Tom Ellis and Vincent Oatis were his teammates in these events.

Diver Jack Davis won the league frosh-soph title and also a major letter for his showing in the state meet. Other point winners in this event were Molter and Bob Lawrence.

The Drucker, Gershenow and Bennett medley relay team was another record breaker and title holder.

VARSITY Baseball

Many "Echoes" in previous years have forecasted championship seasons for the New Trier varsity baseball squad. Never have those title hopes materialized. But this year, at the time the book went to press, New Trier was out in front in the league race with two-thirds of the season over. It is no forecast but a statement of fact to say that regardless of the outcome of the rest of the season, the 1937 squad is the greatest representative New Trier has ever had on the diamond.

To date out of eleven games, ten have been victories for the Gray-Green men. Eight of those winning efforts were consecutive. In the eleven games they have pounded 86 runs across the plate, an average of almost eight a game, while their opponents have been allowed only 33 markers, an average of three a game.

The pitching staff responsible for the three runs per game average of the opposition is the best in the league. Captain George "Ace" Glover is in his third year as a varsity hurler while Ed Bruhn and Jake Thompson are both veterans of the 1936 team. Burt Blow, southpaw relief pitcher from the 1936 frosh-soph, rounds out the staff.

When they are not pitching, Glover and Bruhn alternate at first base. Both are competent fielders and at bat are long ball hitters.

The second base combination is made up of Paul "Toads" Kasper at second and Art Cruttenden at short-stop. Both are high up on the official team batting averages.

Second Row: W. Lyman, B. Rion, C. Rothermel, F. Mercer, E. Gray, B. Driscoll, B. Blow, J. Crowell, M. Mundee.

Third Row: Coach Grater, D. Rick, G. Herman, N. Smith, R. Schied, B. McNitt, G. Glover, J. Thompson, E. Bruhn, I. Jackson, G. Watt, H. Riley.

Third base is held down by another veteran, active Lief Mikkelsen, a consistent batsman.

Hard-hitting "Babe" Herman and Marsh Mundee have alternated in left field. In center is Ned Smith. The oldest member in point of service plays right field — Willie Driscoll, a four-year veteran.

Behind the bat Dave Skillin continued to celebrate his return to New Trier by grabbing off his third regular assignment of the year on a varsity team. Dave has the same natural ability and aggressiveness in baseball that he has shown on the gridiron and the basketball floor.

Spring got a late start this year so New Trier opened the Suburban season without playing any practice games. Behind the two-hit pitching of Captain Glover, the Green nosed out Highland Park, 2 to 1 on April 19 and the same week Ed Bruhn shut out Waukegan while his teammates were collecting twelve runs.

In a practice game on April 26, Jake Thompson and Bruhn held the left-handed Lake Forest batsmen in check to win, 8 to 4. Then came two gratifying victories. Paul Kasper collected three hits to lead in pounding out an 8 to 3 win from Evanston and a week later a barrage of hits, including a homer by Herman, combined with Villager misplays, gave New Trier a victory over Oak Park.

Baseball

On May 6 Amundsen took a 17 to 2 trimming and the next day Loyola fell 14 to 4. Against the favored Proviso squad on May 8, Bruhn pitched a two hit shutout and won when Glover and Cruttenden led the team in run-making. Proviso retaliated the next Monday, snapping the New Trier victory chain with a 10 to 4 defeat.

Coach Grater expressed the belief that the defeat would knock any over-confidence out of the team rather than discourage them. Bearing him out, New Trier beat Morton and Highland Park in the next two tilts to remain title-bound. In the Morton game, Bruhn pitched good ball against the hitherto undefeated defending champs and hit a home run with two men on base to drive in the winning runs.

Four more games remain on New Trier's league schedule. Morton, Evanston, Oak Park and Waukegan still bar the title door. But with any luck at all, hard-working Coach Grater and Captain Glover will be the leaders of New Trier's first league baseball champions by the time this Echoes is out.

Coach Sandvig's second frosh-soph baseball team has shown promising strength in the games played up to the date of this writing. The yearlings have lost only one game so far, the first of the series with Oak Park. On the credit side of the ledger are two victories over Proviso, and one each over Evanston and Waukegan. "Sandy" has high hopes of winning all three of the remaining games against Waukegan, Evanston and Oak Park.

Most promising from the standpoint of material for future varsity teams has been the pitching staff of Bell, Jack Davis and Bob Davis. Jack Davis' powerful hitting has given him an outfield berth when he is not hurling.

At first base is Earl Borre, a fine fielder and a fair hitter. Reggie Rounsfull holds down the second base berth. Captain Jim Dewey, shortstop, has shown ability both at bat and afield. Third base is covered by Dick Sauer, a four sport star. Since the entire varsity infield graduates this year, all four of these youngsters have the inside track on next year's starting jobs.

Besides Jack Davis, the outfield is covered by Bob Horn, Vince Smedley and Rigo Marchini, another all-around star.

Behind the bat is one of the team's stars, Bruschini, a good backstop and a fair hitter.

Golf

Led by Captain Joe Franco, a four-year veteran and one of the finest young players in the middle west, the golf team has piled up a really impressive record this spring. At the date of this writing, New Trier has won eleven straight matches, scoring 139½ points to their opponents' 28½.

This winning streak is the 1937 golf team's contribution to New Trier's record over a period of years. The last time a Green-Gray golf team lost a match was in 1934 and since then the team has won 27 straight. Twice in that period of three years the team has also won the Suburban tournament which is decided on medal play. The sole loss in the tournament was by a margin of one stroke.

Besides Franco, this year's team has Jack Brigham, Phil Greer, Len Lawrence and Tom MacMorran returning as veterans. Scott Campbell, Tom Harrington, Van Smith, Gordon Sibley and Howie Keefe also won places on the team on the basis of their showing in the qualifying trials which Coach Aram conducted in April.

So far the team has numbered among its eleven victims Culver, Chicago Latin, Niles Center, Lake Forest, Proviso, Waukegan, McHenry, Oak Park, Loyola, Morton and Evanston. The Suburban tournament and matches with Highland Park, Chicago Latin, Lake Forest, McHenry and Rockford still remain on the schedule.

This year's tennis team has every bit of New Trier's traditional strength in the sport. Three four-year veterans, Co-Captain Dave Early, Co-Captain Art Nielsen and Dan Kreer, and a sophomore letterman, Dick Wade, playing as two doubles combinations, have already earned the state championship for the team.

NIELSEN

Early and Kreer won the district title with Nielsen and Wade the runners-up to qualify for the downstate meet. At Champaign the Early-Kreer team won the state championship while Nielsen and Wade lost a tough three-set match in the semi-finals.

In team matches, New Trier finished its schedule without a loss, trouncing University High, Maine twice, Highland Park, Morton, Lake Forest and Evanston, all by a 5 to 0 score, and nosing out Oak Park, 3 to 2. At this writing only the Suburban league tournament remains on the schedule and Coach Flaningam has high hopes of seeing his team win both the individual and team titles.

DUNHILL ROTHSCHILD BARNUM EIDEN

Sports Club

President ..... John Dunhill
Vice-President ..... William Barnum
Secretary ..... Paul Eiden
Treasurer ..... James Rothschild

Most of the reasons for the continued and unusual success of intramural sports at New Trier can be traced to the Sports Club and its sponsor, Mr. D. G. Showley.

This year the club was headed by John Dunhill, president, Bill Barnum, vice president, Paul Eiden, secretary, and Jim Rothschild, treasurer.

Listed as the objects of the Sports Club are (1) the sponsoring, promotion and conducting of as many intramural sports as possible without conflicting with the policies of the athletic department; (2) education in methods of playing, officiating and managing the various sports; and (3) the development of sportsmanship and a spirit of fair play in all interscholastic and intramural sports among spectators, officials and players.

To accomplish these objects, the club holds meetings every Wednesday, at which time reports and discussions of various sports and athletic methods are held. Club members officiate at all IM contests. To promote fellowship within the club, two parties were sponsored this year. Basketball and playground ball teams are organized by the club members. The Sports Club was again active this year in promoting and staging the annual Sports Carnival.

For performing the various duties of club members in the IM field, points are acquired. Seniors who have earned six hundred or more points are eligible to receive silver medals specially designed for the club. Bill Barnum, John Dunhill and Paul Kasper received these awards this year.

The highest honor the Sports Club offers is given to outstanding members who have contributed unselfish service to the club in the promotion of IM sports at New Trier. In recognition of this service the names of Paul Eiden and Bill Barnum were engraved on the Sports Club Trophy which was given the club in 1930 by Mr. Showley.

GIRLS' Athletic Association

Few years have seen such definite progress in the Girls' Athletic Association as was shown this year under the leadership of Connie Clough as president; Jane Olds, vice president; Ruth Sprenger, treasurer; Jane Records, secretary, with the assistance of Flo White, intramural sports chairman; Alice Jean Heinsen, head of officials; Ann Burnham handling publicity; Betty White, social chairman and Miss Healy the sponsor.

This year a Sports' Administration course was offered to those interested in physical education. This class supplied the officials for all of the intramural sports. They launched a very successful posture campaign, making New Trier posture conscious. In a school-wide contest Ann Burnham was judged to have the most graceful walk. The girls in Miss Bredin's adviser group had the highest rating for good standing positions. A Hobby show was also sponsored by the girls taking Sports' Administration and the Art department.

The first assembly in the fall introduced the freshmen to the GAA organization. Class teams of the previous year demonstrated the technique of hockey and soccer one afternoon. After the matches, the new girls had tea in the Girls' Club room. Later in the season, the Scotch hockey team, guests of the North Shore Field Hockey Association, coached a group of girls in intricate plays.

The swimmers participated in the natatorium dedication ceremony and demonstrated special events at the Culver swimming meet. Just before spring vacation the swimming team placed second in the Telegraphic Swimming meet. An advanced group of forty-five boys and girls practiced special numbers in preparation for next year's water carnival.

In the middle of December, the GAA held open house for girls from five neighboring schools. Girls from Roycemore, Highland Park, Oak Park, Country Day, and Evanston attended. After swimming in the natatorium, the visitors stayed for tea. The fall award assembly was also held in that month. Miss Boulton presented the awards and Miss Margot Atkin spoke on "Sports as a Hobby."

Recreational games were offered as a GAA sport the third quarter. Friday afternoons the gym was open for girls to play badminton, darts, shuffle board, and table tennis. The success of this activity inspired broader plans for next year which may develop into a coeducational program of recreational activities.

A winter sports tea was held for the winning teams in basketball and swimming and the adviser rooms who had come through the season without defaults. Numerals were awarded to first team members.

An amendment to the GAA constitution was proposed, allowing more than five points a week to be earned in one sport. This change necessitated the revision of the award system: 100 points for initiation into GAA, and special awards for 300, 600, and 800 point winners. A prize was offered for the best design for the 600 point award. An "N" is given for 800 points. After much discussion, the amendment was voted on by the GAA members and passed.

In the spring award assembly, Miss Packer, an honorary member of the organization, presented the awards. Mary Ann Butterworth was announced as the designer of the winning 600 point insignia. Candidates for GAA offices in 1937-38 were introduced.

During the last quarter many special events were scheduled. The dancers gave a delightful program for the PTA, ending a long season of practice and work on technique. A horse show, given in the spring, demonstrated the ability of the New Trier equestriennes. Prizes were awarded.

On May 22 twelve of New Trier's best lacrosse players were sent to a play day, sponsored by the North Shore Women's Lacrosse Association.

Coeducation in sports was introduced this year by mixed splash parties and social dancing classes.

The annual GAA banquet, following the initiation week for new members, closed the busy year in girls' sports. The Board members had a picnic at the end of their year's work managing the administration of the GAA.

Soccer

The fall sport's season, lasting ten weeks, opened with exhibition games of hockey and soccer, followed by a tea, all designed to introduce freshmen to those sports.

In the soccer tournament, the Cook-Vlasto team won the adviser room competition, and the senior class team gained the school championship. Mrs. Rehage and Patsy Roche managed three hundred ninety-eight girls throughout an exciting season.

The sophomores won the hockey consolation tournament, in which the championship games proved unusually exciting, victory depending on the score of the second team game. About two hundred and forty girls participated in hockey under the leadership of Miss Adair, Miss Boulton, Miss Healy and Ruth Rockwood. Tryouts for the North Shore School Girls' Hockey team were held at New Trier in the fall. Kay Neeves, Jane Records and Beverly Andrews made the second team.

After some keen competition the sophomore class team defeated the mighty senior girls to become school basketball champs. The major activity of Margaret Hurlbutt as head of basketball was running the adviser room tournaments. The invincible Briedenbach team was the senior winner. An hilarious faculty-student

The brand new natatorium acted as a special attraction, bringing 223 underclassmen and 157 juniors and seniors out for swimming. class meet at the close of the third quarter was won by the sophomores with forty points to the seniors' second with twenty-six points. The triumph of the season came when the girls' team placed second in the Telegraphic Meet.

Special interest in rhythms led to the formation of a gym class concentrating on dancing and the extension of dancing as an after school sport from the winter to the spring season. For the second year a spring dance festival, organized by Mrs. Rehage, with the aid of Ann Schuman, was presented.

The tap dancing teams provided the entertainment at the GAA banquet, executing the routines that they had mastered during their lessons under the instruction of Mrs. Rehage and the leadership of Sally Eastman.

Seventy-five girls came out for riflery and received coaching under the combined instruction of Mr. Brown, members of the Rifle Club and Ann Musson who heads this sport.

obtained scores in the high 30's and 40's.

The four-week fistball season found Frances Wyatt managing three hundred and seventy-five girls in a double elimination tournament, in which the Breidenbach team was victorious.

Thirty-five enthusiastic freshmen led the one hundred New Trier girls who enjoyed a successful year horseback riding. Dorothy Canfield, head of sport, states that many promising riders performed in the demonstration at the end of the spring term.

Spurred on by special rivalry between the senior and sophomore baseball teams, three hundred girls came out for that sport under the leadership of Beatrice Leal and Mrs. Rehage.

The archery season opened with weeks of intensive practice, managed by the sport head, Jayn Kassner, and Mrs. Abbott, the faculty instructor. The girls out for archery engaged in several interesting tournaments and entered a national archery contest.

The ardor of the girl golfers was somewhat dampened by cold weather in the fall. The one tournament held at that time, a putting contest, was won by Mary Wilder. The head of the sport, Edith Gillette, reports that the mild spring days lured a greater number of beginners and experienced players out for golf. One hundred and three girls were signed up for this sport.

Lacrosse was coached by Miss Adair in its second year at New Trier, with Pat Walsh the sport head. Although there were no adviser room games, class teams were chosen and an interclass tournament was held. Twelve outstanding players represented New Trier at a play day held in May.

In the finals of the fall tennis matches, held indoors, Jean Woolhiser, head of the sport, became the senior singles champ. In the contest for the school championship she was defeated by her younger sister Marion, who also holds the freshman singles title. Polly Neeves was the sophomore winner and Ann Schuman the junior champ. Patsy Walsh and Carolyn Nelson won the school doubles championship. In the spring a group of twelve girls played singles and doubles matches with Oak Park at Oak Park.

Table tennis was offered along with a recreational sports program introduced this year. Jean Woolhiser managed the Friday afternoons when table tennis, badminton, darts, and other individual sports were offered.

TNT is considered the highest award received by students at New Trier, as it is recognition of outstanding participation in school activities. Activities, scholarship, and service are all important factors in the selection.

The letters TNT stand for the Latin phrase "Tenax, Nobilis, Triumphans," which means "Steadfast, Noble, Triumphant," the three words which are supposed to characterize all those who are elected to TNT.

Each year in March advisers, club sponsors, and advisor chairmen submit to the faculty supervisors of TNT lists of names of students who they believe deserve election to TNT.

The records of students are then looked up, and the names of those who have made contributions in two or more fields are retained for election. The final selection is made by those students who became members of TNT in their junior year.

An innovation this year was the presenting of pins to newly-elected juniors. Formerly they, as well as others, were required to purchase their own pins.

Officers for 1937 were: Bill Stebbins, president; Jane Wheeland, vice-president; and Kay Wenter, secretary-treasurer. Miss Hadden and Mr. Windoes continued as faculty sponsors.

Brother freshmen, during the school year of 1933-'34, were New Trier's class of '37 and New Trier's Student Council. Like the rest of the youngest underclassmen, the council was regarded with amusement, discredited lightly enough. And like the rest of the freshmen, the passage of the first three years of its high school career brought the Council to the peak of its prestige in September, 1936. The council looked forward to its "senior" year with optimism.

The inner council, which met the week before school opened to plan the first projects of the year, was led by Jack Byrum, president; Ed Greenhalgh, vice-president; and Chuck Soulé, treasurer. Byrum appointed two senior holdovers from the previous year, Bill Knepper and John Frankel, chairman of the assembly committee and co-chairman of the interscholastic relations committee, respectively. Student relations chairman Bill Wright, Wally Knoop, building and grounds chairman, chairman Ann Burnham of the charter and contact committee, and Milt Shapiro, who headed the publications committee, completed the inner council. Later Ann Burnham was elected secretary to fill the vacancy left by the withdrawal from school of Lucie Keeler, and Alice Hanson and Jean Kleckner were appointed to the inner council as interscholastic relations co-chairman and charter and contact chairman, respectively.

Confronted by three major tasks early in the year, the council completed two very successfully, the third partially. Soulé, assisted by Publicitors Scarff, Greenhalgh, Burnham, and Shapiro, directed a record breaking activities ticket sale which disposed of over 1,800 paid tickets and definitely established the permanence of the ticket.

Job number two, managed for the most part by John Frankel and Alice Hanson, was the presentation, on November 21, of the second annual district convention of student governments. Almost the entire council and many other students contributed their services as hosts to some two hundred visitors representing schools within a thirty-mile radius. President Byrum, Mr. Windoes, Peg Stein, and Milt Shapiro were New Trier's representatives on the program.

Meanwhile Assembly Chairman Knepper and his committee had been working on job number three, perhaps the hardest of all. In the spring and summer of 1936, Mr. Mulford, of the school board, had secured the services of the Illinois Symphony orchestra for a series of eight double concerts during 1936-'37—afternoon concerts for students and evening concerts for adults. To the council was assigned the task of selling enough adult subscriptions to finance the entire series without cost to students. Knepper and Bob Walker, who was in charge during the former's illness, managed a good campaign, although failing to overcome the indifference of the township, and financed all the evening and five of the student concerts. A half-dollar ticket to the student series was supported by over 1,000.

These previously contracted obligations attended to, the council turned to the problems of the year. Before retirement into midwinter hibernation the finance committee drew up a bill, later passed by the council, which standardized and provided accurate records of the financial setups of every student organization in school. The student relations committee conducted brief but intensive drives against smoking and jaywalking, the latter campaign featuring the use on Winnetka avenue of the public address system.

Perhaps the most unusual and farsighted act of the Council this year was the calling of a faculty-student conference at which the student leaders of activities and the teachers most interested in extra-curricular work met and discussed problems common to all in improving school life. Nothing concrete resulted from this conference immediately, but it was the primary step in the Council's program to improve the attitude of the individual student toward the school by providing an increased informality in school life as a whole and an increased responsibility for each member of New Trier.

COUNCIL ACTIVITIES

Out of this program grew the system of student supervised study halls for boys. Eight of the halls were placed under student supervision, in most cases successfully. Out of this program, too, grew the system of dining hall supervision which was adopted in the middle of the year. More successful at first than it was later, the plan was an attempt to improve conditions in this traditional sore spot through moderate student action. Although neither the study hall nor the dining hall experiment has been completely successful, the two have shown enough promise to convince the Council that with revisions in their administration they will eventually succeed.

As a third part of the program to make school life more enjoyable, the Council assembly committee sponsored such speakers as Dr. Samuel Harkness and Rabbi Charles Shulman on Armistice Day, Sam Risk, Judge John Gutknect, and Sam Campbell. The Carleton college band was also presented, and at the time this article was written the committee was arranging the annual Memorial Day assembly.

On the whole the Council was not wrong in expecting this past year to be its best. The organization has performed its many routine jobs well and has made several definite contributions to the school. Above all, it has been the outstanding example of student management at New Trier, relying on the sound advice of its sponsor, Mr. Van Deursen, and its faculty members, Mr. Windoes and Miss Hadden, but doing its own work and its own thinking.

The successful year of 1936-37 is one more filled with gratifying accomplishments. Every member of the club, and that means every girl in school, can be proud of the achievements which have upheld the ideals and standards passed on to us by our predecessors.

A real need was filled seventeen years ago when the club was started for the purpose of spreading the spirit of friendship among the girls of school, and providing financially for those who needed assistance. Besides these efforts to contribute to the happiness of every girl's school career, the club has tried each year to make some material addition to the school. Another important aim is to provide scholarships for girls who cannot attend college without financial aid.

We feel very fortunate that this was the year for the bi-annual bazaar, because that big event is such a great deal of fun and offers so many girls the chance to unite in actively promoting the progress of the club. Each advisor room participated in running one of the gay and original booths. The club was able to clear over $1,000 and the bazaar day of December 5 will be remembered by all those who took part in it.

Because we have had such a grand fiscal year the Financial Committee has well earned its praise. Julia Booz, the chairman of this Committee, and the girls who helped her, set the year off to a good start by selling sandwiches the first day of school. The football season found them busy selling hot-dogs along with the school colors in armbands and pennants. Throughout the year they have sold stationery, pencils, and school plaques.

Every year the attendance of the school mounts higher and increases the responsibility of the Social and Friendly Committees, headed this season by Jane Wheeland and Charlene Driver, respectively. Early in the year they gave teas for the Freshmen and the new girls of the upper classes in order to help them meet other girls in the school. The Social Committee gathered together the entertainment which helped to make the Father-Daughter banquet such an enjoyable event; while Charlene Driver's Committee made up the decorations which added so much to that occasion. The Friendly Dinner was an innovation this year which will be continued in hope that it will be another social contact for the girls.

Betty Jane Weld, Employment Chairman, gave worthwhile aid in finding positions for girls who desired to work in part time jobs. The Charity Committee under Helen Prescott's direction found a lot to accomplish in filling Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, carrying on the Red Cross Drives, and cooperating with the school health department in providing lunch money, glasses, and medical aid for less fortunate persons. In connection with the Tri-Ship Club and the Student Council they raised over $1,200 for the Emergency Flood Relief. Kay Neeves had charge of the Publicity Committee which is responsible for handling the Club's advertising. Paisley Rockwell's Committee on Arrangements had the difficult task of caring for the club room.

Miss Lulu Wright, the sponsor, is the guiding spirit behind everything which is accomplished.

Every girl who takes an active part in the work of the club receives so much more in the way of opportunity for cooperation, friendliness, and leadership than she contributes that it is a wonderful chance for individual development. This year's officers and committee chairmen pass on their responsibilities with extreme reluctance and will always look upon their connection with the club as the biggest thing in their school careers.

Last fall the Tri-Ship Club faced a new decade.

For ten years it had been serving New Trier and the community in promoting the three basic ideals of the organization: citizenship, sportsmanship, and fellowship; from whence comes the name. Each year there were new duties and innovations introduced.

This year, the officers were determined to make 1937 another and greater step forward in the club's advancement. They have more than succeeded.

Among the events promoted this year was an all-star radio show, consisting of numerous

NBC headliners; an athletic dinner featuring John P. Carmichael, sports writer on the "Daily News"; a mother-son banquet with Dr. William McGovern, noted adventurer, as the speaker; and a return engagement of the popular Cornelia Otis Skinner, famed monologist. Another event was the annual sports carnival, which proved itself a success by the number of people attending and taking part.

There were six of the ever popular Tri-Ship dances this year, and the club hit a new note in satisfaction with its orchestra selections and promotion. A "hard times" dance was the season's highlight.

The Usher Corps had an exceptionally active year, while the cheerleaders expanded their membership and learned a few tricks to lend more spirit at the football and basketball games. Then there is the clubroom, luxuriously fitted out with the most modern and complete furnishings, checker tables, and a radio. This room has been the scene of numerous meetings and has recently been used to entertain our rival athletic teams after the game. All these are under Tri-Ship supervision as is the Information Desk.

The club is a member of the National Junior Red Cross and was outstanding in raising money to aid in the last great flood disaster. Another benevolent activity of the club is to help the less fortunate New Trier boys to complete their high school education by paying for their books, fees, and other incidentals. At Christmas, food and clothing are distributed to the needy families of the community. This activity alone could justify the existence of Tri-Ship.

Each year the Tri-Ship award is given to the senior boy who best lived up to the club's ideals. This year's winner of the coveted honor is James Neilson.

Mr. Frisbie, the faculty sponsor, has long been the man behind the wheel. He has been responsible for the very organization of the club, and his personality has lent the spirit necessary for its endurance.

1936-37 proved to be another outstanding year for the music department. Every year the musical organizations play a larger part in the average student's life.

Mrs. Cotton, Mrs. Bradburn, Miss Anderson, Mr. Swigart and Mr. Schumacher have done so much more this year than ever before to establish music in the minds of New Trier's students.

The Christmas Concert was perhaps the high spot in the first semester's activities. The Concert again demonstrated its popularity among the citizens of New Trier Township.

The Choir received an invitation to sing a Christmas program over station WGN. All who heard them were proud indeed as were those of us who were denied that privilege.

Although the first semester was busy, the second was one full of accomplishments of the highest order. After many tedious weeks of practice the Boys' First Glee Club presented Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury" on April 7 and 8. They had a very large and appreciative audience both nights and both audiences saw the finest type of production. The Girls' Glee Club had a fine compliment paid to them and their director when they were invited to sing with the Apollo Club of Chicago and we may be sure that the compliment was not misplaced.

Faculty Play — "THE RIVALS"

This year has been one of the most active in the history of the drama organizations at New Trier. Not only were several new and different ideas carried out, but a larger number of productions than usual were presented this season.

One of the new plans was worked in connection with the annual Fall Play, presented on the evenings of November 20 and 21. Instead of having two casts for one play, two different plays were chosen with a single cast for each. On Friday night James Barrie's "Quality Street" was presented and on the following evening "The Queen's Husband" by Robert Sherwood. Attendance at both of these performances was ample proof of their success and popularity with the students.

The second Dramatic Club presentation of the year embodied a still different plan. The freshmen presented a series of three one-act plays, while the "older" people gave the traditional Freshman-Sophomore Play. The three matinees were "The Knave of Hearts," "The Dyspeptic Ogre," and "The Stolen Prince" presented by one cast on the afternoons of March 5 and 6. The other production was "Wake Up Jonathan," received very successfully on the evenings of the same days.

It has always been interesting to see the members of the faculty perform on the stage, and this year was no exception. The annual Faculty Drama Club production was presented this year on the evenings of January 29 and 30. The play given was Philip Sheridan's "The Rivals." Prominent among the faculty members who showed off on those nights were Miss Hamilton, Dr. Small, Mr. Van Deursen, Miss Gerup, Mr. Coburn, Mr. Wehr, Mr. Lehman, and Mr. Hoskins. A great deal of credit is due the Faculty Drama Club, not only for their splendid performance, but also for the manner in which they turned over the profits from the play to the Red Cross during the flood crisis.

The last new idea worked out this year was the revival of a Players' Play. The Player Group in the Dramatic Club is designated by the directors and is composed of members who have shown their talent in previous performances. This year, because of several opportune factors, it was decided to revive the practice by giving two one-act plays in conjunction with the Music Department's "Trial By Jury." Presented before the opera on the evenings of April 2 and 3, the plays were "The Minuet" and "Spreading the News."

"Lightnin' ", the Senior Play and the last given this year, was produced by a double cast on the evenings of May 7 and 8 and served as a very successful close to a very successful year.

As in the past, the largest share of honor for the success of the dramatic presentations is due to the directors of the organization. Miss Stanwood, Mr. VanKirk, and Mr. Coburn have worked equally hard not only to maintain the high standards but also to set a new high in dramatic activities.

Because the Senior Play was not presented until May 7 and 8 this year, it was impossible for the Echoes staff to include pictures of this production. The cast is confident that this year's production, "Lightnin' " will be long remembered. When this book is published may their hopes and wishes for two outstanding performances be realized.

The "News" has just concluded a year of change. The format of the paper has been redesigned on the scale of a magazine size page instead of the more wieldy newspaper or tabloid size. Headlines and page layouts have been treated in modern style.

A conscientious effort has been made to give adequate publicity to all activities of the school, to the extent that funds have permitted. Enthusiastic cooperation with other school activities has been the guiding principle in editing each issue.

As many people as possible have been given places on the staff, and from time to time the assignments to important positions have been shifted.

Contributions from the Board in a weekly advertisement and from the faculty and students in letters and articles have helped make the "News" a unifying and constructive force in the life of the school.

BROWNLEE - GOODWIN

In the spring of 1935, "Inklings" made its first appearance. This initial edition was sponsored by the English department to commemorate the tri-centennial of secondary education. The purpose of the magazine was to encourage literary talent in the students. The publication was so successful that it again appeared the following year.

"Inklings" is now published twice a year, in December and in May. It has expanded to include not only the best contributions in literature, but also illustrations by the school's outstanding art students. Any student at New Trier is eligible to enter any short form of literature to be accepted for publication. The "Inklings" staff, headed this year by Lestre Brownlee and Robert Goodwin, co-operated with their faculty sponsors, Mr. Peterson and Mr. Lehman, and selected the best contributions for the magazine.

The student body has profited much by "Inklings." It not only offers recognition for outstanding literary and artistic talent, but it helps those students who have not made contributions to appreciate the fine talent and methods of expression exhibited in the accepted material.

Despite the loss of most of the students on last year's Big Twelve championship team, the debating team, under Mr. MacLean's guidance, has had a very successful year. The affirmative debaters are Warren Corning, Clifford Goodman, Dick Lehman, Herbert Steinberger, Bill Drucker, Jackson MacLow, Clarence Hubbard and Garrett James; the negative, Bob Matthews, Bob Gruehn, Bob Greenberg, David Early and Charles McFerran.

This team has proved itself one of the finest in recent years, having already achieved victories over Aurora, Rockford,and Maine. Championship hopes for this year were somewhat spoiled by losses to Lane Tech and George Rogers Clark. The league membership was increased by the addition of Maine Township and Morgan Military. New Trier is also competing in the Illinois State League and taking on Culver and St. John's Academies.

The National Forensic League, which was organized for students who have been in two or three successful debates, gives debaters the opportunity of earning higher degrees. The degree of honor is given after successful participation in ten debates. The degrees of excellence and distinction are the highest attainable. To indicate membership in National Forensic League an attractive hexagonally shaped silver key is worn with jewels to show degrees earned.

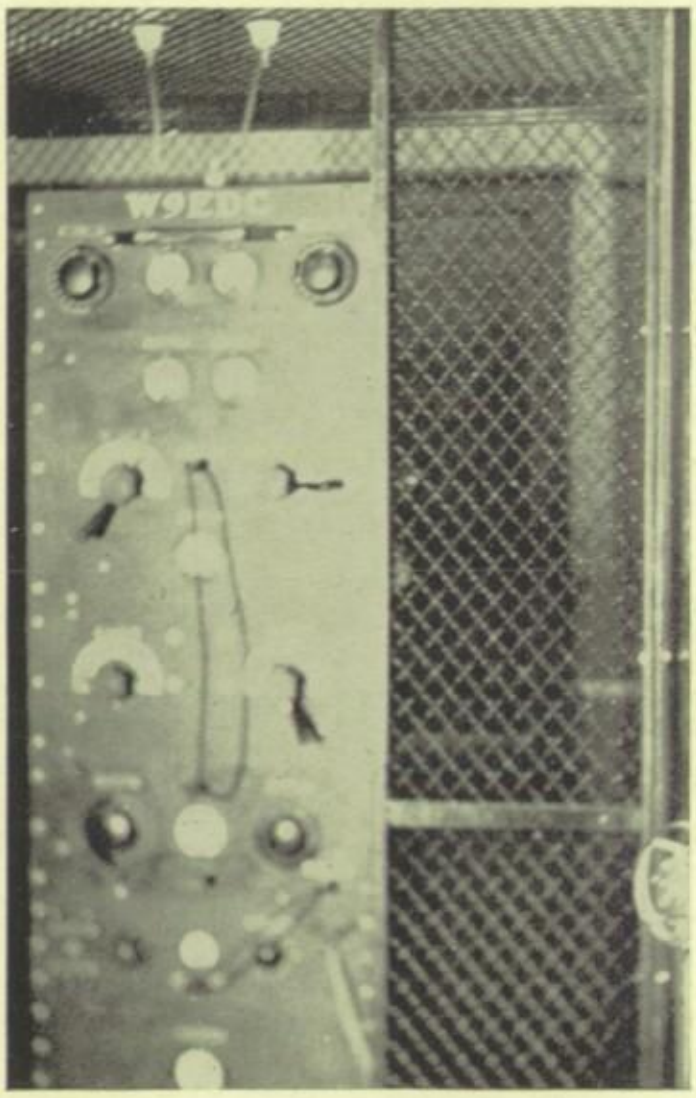
CLUB

Activities

The 1936-'37 school year was notable for the extremely large number of new clubs which were formed. These youngster organizations for the most part have gotten off to a good start and should accomplish big things next year. The many clubs at New Trier serve as an integrating factor between the all-inclusive Tri-Ship and Girls' Club and the activity-minded student. There is a club with its own appeal for every one in school—whether he is partial to raising tropical fish or crooning popular songs, he can find a place to correlate his interest with those of other congenial people, thereby enlarging the scope of, and giving point to, his own hobby.



The Radio club, with Wally Knoop as chief operator, carried out several successful projects this year, among them a trip to the RCA laboratories in Chicago, and an auction of radio parts. During the Ohio flood, amateur operators owning private sets took an active part in establishing communication facilities with the flooded areas.

A healthy offspring of Radio club is Broadcasting club which gives students a chance to exhibit their talents over the school's public address system. Program directors Ken Cobb and Draper Dayton organized groups to perform for the club meetings and during lunch periods in the dining hall, the last in cooperation with the student council.

Another youthful group is the Aviation club which studies the theory of aviation, and especially its vocational opportunities. They worked on model planes, giving an exhibit in the gym. They also planned an outdoor air show for late spring.

The Archeology club had among its speakers in this, its first year, Mrs. Florence Burnham de Loach and Dr. Boyes, secretary of the Oriental Institute, and Mr. Leslie Cook. They also took several trips to the Oriental Institute and to Dickson mounds.

The Drivers' club had Mr. Gaffney for one of its speakers, sponsored a safety movie by the State Police, and is investigating the possibility for buying an automobile for practical instruction in driving and in highway safety.

The German club gives attention to German literature and music and to securing conversational practice. Its programs this year chiefly took the forms of plays and lectures given by students, and a Christmas songfest. Guest speakers were Mr. Hildebrand, Mr. Delaporte, and Mr. Frisbe.

Scriblerus this year had its largest membership nearly reaching its limit of one to every hundred students in school. Speakers this year included Miss Gerup, who talked about her personal contacts with Hamlin Garland, and Miss Stanwood, who discussed play-writing. The climax of the year was the spring picnic at which the six senior members were entertainers.

The Art club gives students who haven't time to take art as a subject opportunity to follow it up as a hobby. Talks were given this year by Mr. Kolia Kasairoff, noted Russian artist, and Nancy Coonsman Hahn, North Shore sculptress.

The big meeting of French and Spanish clubs was a joint get-together at which Miss Bredin and Miss Donham showed their movies. The purpose of both clubs are basically the same as the German club. Several students who have traveled in France gave talks on their adventures at meetings of the French club, and a chorus under the direction of Mrs. Kidd sang chansons. The Spanish club was entertained once by Mr. George C. Lowell's colored films of Mexico.

The Lens club, under a new sponsor, Mr. Bridges, promoted a candid camera contest, entered pictures in the hobby show, and had a party at the sponsor's home.

The Bird club studied bird habits, collected nests, and took field trips to Crow Island, preparing to enter the Barnett contest. The Geology club visited the Joliet quarry region and took several other trips while the Natural Science club worked on projects in the Natural History Museum, and had speakers from the Field Museum.

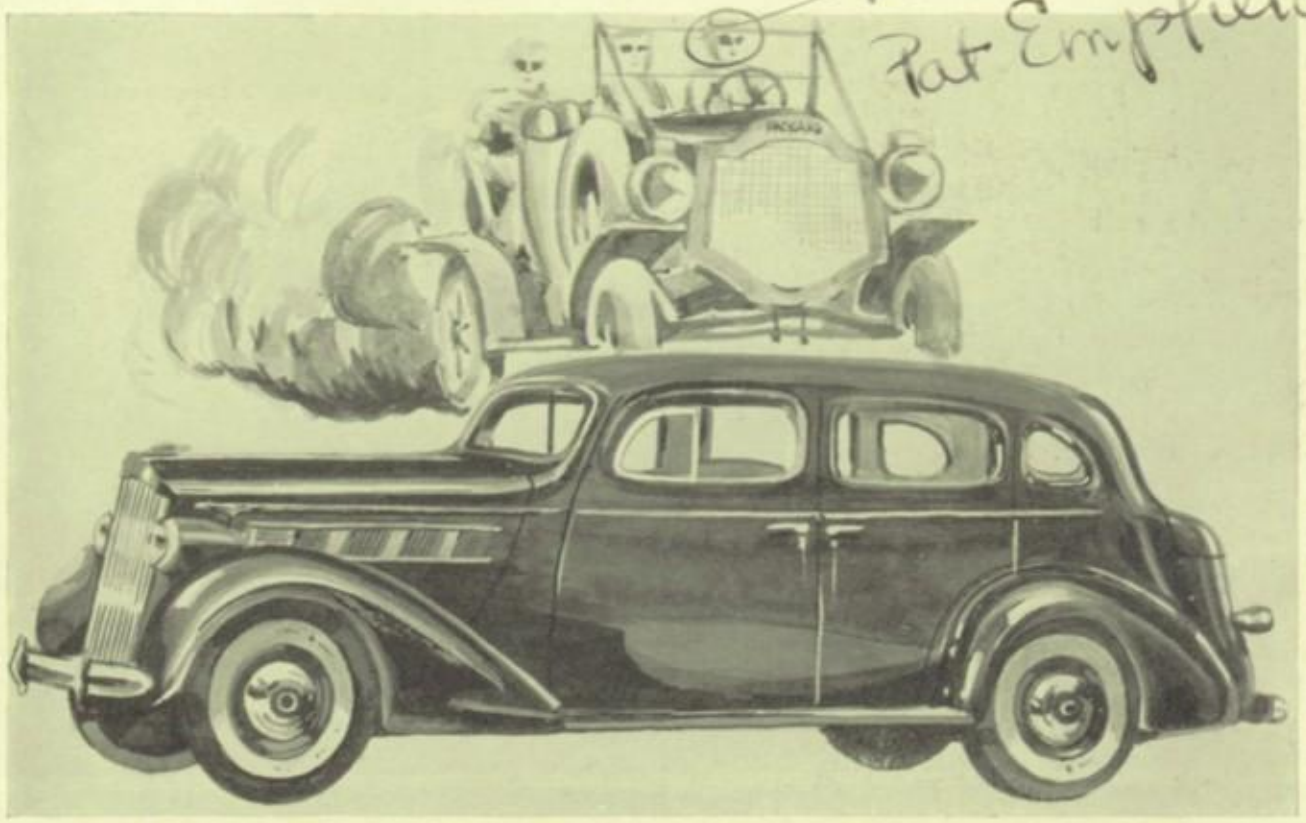
A DREAM COMES TRUE



After thirty-seven years of fine car building Packard Motor Company now offers its vast motoring public a quality car in the low price field. Many people who up to date have been unable to afford a Packard can now own one of the fine new sixes. The standards which have made for Packard the reputation of being the "World's Finest Motor Car" are rigidly upheld. Packard certainly deserves a place in the history of the North Shore where the caliber of the people's judgment in choosing Packard has made it the most popular motor car for many years.

Merit wins recognition

All worth-while attainment is the result of a diligent effort to excel. It matters not whether the scene of action is the classroom, the playfield or the theater of life itself — it takes true merit to win.

We of the Lloyd Hollister organization accept this truth as an every-day working formula that really works.
